Payments and Minimum Term

The minimum term for all levels of BackupPro Pricing and all plug-ins is 3 months.

BackupPro accepts payment via a valid credit or debit card. Fees paid for subscriptions to the BackupPro Products payable in advance and are non-refundable. You may try the BackupPro Products prior to paying for a full subscription by licensing a Trial or Evaluation Version. If your subscription has been suspended for non-payment, it will only be reactivated upon payment, in full, of all overdue fees. Your subscription will not be activated or reactivated without prior payment.

Subscription Renewals

Fees are due and payable prior to your subscription renewal date. Incomplete or incorrect sign-up information may result in inactivation of your account. The prices for renewals may be different than those paid for a prior subscription. To cancel your subscription to any BackupPro Product prior to the expiration date of your subscription, you must notify BackupPro.

Lawful Use

It is a violation of law for you to misuse or fraudulently use credit and debit cards. BackupPro will report all misuse and fraudulent use to government authorities, credit reporting services, financial institutions and credit card companies.

Discrepancies

Your right to raise billing discrepancies and any associated recovery is waived unless reported to BackupPro at accounts@BackupPro.com.au within sixty (60) calendar days after such discrepancy is discovered.
